CHILDREN TAKE
WELL TO SYSTEM
OF SCHOOL PLAY

"Dad" Zerfoss Much Pleased With Mason County Schools—Children Like System of Play.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday L. F. "Dad" Zerfoss, District Secretary State Y. M. C. A., in company with Prof. G. H. Turnipseed, County Superintendent, visited the Consolidated Schools of Mason county and came in contact with over 1000 school children teachers and parents.

The Y. M. C. A. is promoting an athletic and recreational program in every county in the state, trying to meet the great physical needs of boys and girls as was made so apparent by medical examinations of young men for the recent war, when over 38 per cent of Kentucky boys failed to qualify because of physical defects, which could have been corrected by proper physical training.

Mr. Zerfoss by actual demonstration with the pupils of the various schools visited put on various community plays, where as many as 100 pupils were engaged in the same play, at the same time; also instructing them in volley ball, relay races, darts and jumps in the hope that at the end of the school year these schools will put on a field meet and compete in a friendly sportsman-like way, reviving again the spirit of the golden age of renowned sports.

Mason county has just reason to be proud of her schools, both city and county, and Mr. Zerfoss, an old school man, expressed unreserved gratification at the splendid work that was being done, the high-class teachers directing the work and the wonderful personal and spirit of the pupils, all indications of a fine, forward looking citizenship back of it all.

Prof. Turnipseed is enthusiastic about the way in which the teachers entered into this play and recreational program as it will mean better bodies for our future men and women and better bodies means better men and women physically, morally, mentally and educationally.

Give normal children a chance and they would rather be good than bad.

GREAT Y. M. C. A. MAN
TO SPEAK IN KENTUCKY

Invitation Issued to Meeting to be Held in Louisville in Honor of Dr. John R. Mott.

Dr. John R. Mott the General Secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. will visit Kentucky on October 2, being the guest at a State-wide Conference luncheon given in his honor by the Kentucky State Y. M. C. A. at the Seelbach Hotel. A number of citizens from this county and city interested in the future methods of work among welfare organizations and movements related to the church have received invitations to attend and some of them are planning to attend.

Dr. Mott is one of the outstanding laymen of the Christian world. He has come in actual contact with the leaders of every nation frequently enough for them to call on him in counsel over social and religious problems. During his first administration as Ambassador to China, which was de-

President Wilson offered him the Ambassadorship to China, which was declined. Dr. Mott is a man of great ability and influence.

It has been twenty years since Dr. Mott visited Kentucky, and just now, with the world so upset and full of questions as to program and methods for the future, to say the least, his visit offers a most timely opportunity to the thinking men of our state.

FIVE GENERATIONS HEARD
BEAVER CREEK PASTOR

Cynthiana, Ky., September 26.—The Rev. S. H. Burgess preached a farewell sermon at the Beaver Baptist church after 43 years of continuous service, beginning September 20, 1876.

A few were present who were also there at the meeting 43 years ago.

In a number of cases he had preached to three generations and in one particular instance five generations of the same household. Mr. J. Arch Bailey, in behalf of the community and church members, in a few words presented Brother Burgess with a handsome silver service, consisting of a silver plate and pitcher.

The cool weather has stopped the bathing and hydroplaning in the Ohio river in front of Mayville which has been a very popular sport among the young ladies of the city for several weeks.

REFORMS IN STATE
ARE BEING BACKED
BY KY. CLUB WOMEN

Executive Board of Kentucky Federation Announces Drastic Program
For the Coming Year
In State.

A bill to take the state penal and charitable institutions out of politics by the establishment of a civil service commission to examine superintendents and employees will be submitted to the 1920 session of the Kentucky General Assembly by the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs. It was decided at the meeting of the executive board held at Lexington Friday.

The federation will also have presented bills to raise the age of legal protection of girls to eighteen years and to provide equal protection for both sexes, to provide a farm to which delinquent women may be committed for indefinite terms, and to obtain state aid for tuberculosis sanatoria.
All of the bills to be presented will be drafted and submitted to the Kentucky Co-operative Council, which will meet at the University of Kentucky, October 16, for corrections and additions.

The bill providing for a civil service commission will take the appointment of heads and employees of all charitable and penal institutions out of the governor and political leaders, and provide for competitive tests of efficiency and ability of appliances for positions. The bill asking state aid for sanatoria for the treatment of tuberculosis is endorsed because there is no state sanatorium and no county or group of counties would be able to finance alone the district sanatoria planned.

The farm for delinquent women which will be asked in another bill, should be equipped for mental, moral, physical and industrial training to satisfy the needs of inmates who may be committed to it, according to the recommendation of the Social Hygiene Department. The same department asked and was assured of the co-operation with any agency seeking the revision and betterment of divorce laws of the state.

Members of the board engaged in a long discussion of the need for better motion picture censorship in Kentucky after Miss Anne Gullion, of Carrollton, chairman of the Department of Civic advocated a State board of censors.
No action was taken except an agreement to continue the spreading of propaganda for better censorship.

The board voted to ask club members to act as solicitors in the campaign to raise $300,000 for a Kentucky Memorial building on the campus of the University of Kentucky in view of the shortage of workers available.

President Frank L. McVey, of the university, and Edward W. Hines, of Louisville, chairman of the general committee, addressed the board and asked the aid of the club women of the state in the campaign, which has already been endorsed by the Federation.

Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, chairman of the Department of Education, reported the campaign to raise $20,000 in the state to purchase supplies for the use of illiterates in the moonlight schools would continue until December 1. The board will urge districts which have not raised their quotas of the fund to increase their efforts.

The resignation of Miss Alice Lloyd of Mayville, as manager of the campaign, was announced by Mrs. Stewart, who will conduct the remainder of the campaign herself.

LIVE MEETING HELD AT ORANGEBURG

Quite an interesting meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Or-angeburg school was held Friday evening at the school house. Many of the patrons were present and a pie supper was held which netted quite a neat sum for the association. County Agent George Kirk, County Health Officer Rice and County School Superintendent Turnipseed were the chief speakers.

GREAT PATTI WONDERFUL
SINGER IS DEAD

Adelina Patti, One of the Greatest of Prima Donnas, Died This Morning.

London, September 27. — Adelina Patti, the prima donna, died this morning at Craigy-Nos castle, Penycaw, South Wales.

Mme. Adelina Patti reigned for 40 years as queen of singers.

Her marvelous voice thrilled the greatest contemporaries of her day.
The elder Dumas, the French dramatist, once said to her:

"Being a man and a Christian, I love to listen to your singing; but if I were a bird I would die of envy."

Dwindling finances sent the Patti family from Italy to New York when Adelina was a child. When she was seven years old her parents suddenly became destitute.

"In the emergency," the singer said,
"my mother considered that I had extraordinary vocal talent, and hit upon the idea of bringing me out in concert".
The child made her debut at Tripler bell, in New York, slinging arias from the "Barber," in 1850. She was the juvenile prodigy of the day, and nearly ruined her voice by over-work.

At the age of 16 she appeared in the Academy of Music, New York.
In her first opera role "Lucia di Lammermoor." Her wonderful soprano aroused the audience to the wildest enthusiasm, and her fame swept the country. It was the beginning of a dazzling conquest of Europe. Royalty entertained her and courted her favor.

FOR THE LEAGUE: WITH RESERVATIONS

President Wilson now accuses his opponents in the senate of consulting cowardice instead of courage in refusing to accept the covenant of the league of nations as it is given them. The president's conceptions as it is given them. The president's conceptions are peculiar. He alarms his audiences by trading upon their fears and charges that clear sighted men who are not frightened by visions but who have a decent regard for reality with being contemplated and cowardly.

His presentation of the case for the covenant has weakened it in our opinion. He has demonstrated that the senate opposition is right and that the United States, for its security, must be saved from entrapment in the league as it stands.

It is about time for the senate to proceed to adopt the reservations which will protect the United States, adopt the amended covenant, accept the peace with Germany, and give the world its start on the road towards stability.

The further the argument over the covenant proceeds the more it degenerates into calling of names and the less it devolves reasons for the covenant without reservations.

The Americanization of that document is needed. No other nation has surrendered a vital interest to Mr. Wilson's cause of internationalism. Our powerful associates are heavy with benefits and assured in their prospects. The United States has not asked for any present benefits and the senate is not asking for them. The senate opponents of the covenant in its present form are asking that the American future be given some of the safeguards the other nations have obtained for their future.

It is harmful to delay the re-establishment of peace. It is useless to avoid longer the issues Mr. Wilson has raised. His program should be amended, and it should be amended as expeditiously as possible.

"THE WAR OF CLASSES"

"The war of classes" is a frequent phrase on their lips, but in order to have a war of classes you must have classes. Commonplace as it may seem to say it, there are no classes in America. There is no upper class and no lower class. Men of the "upper" descend into the "lower," men of the "lower" rise into the "upper," and the "upper," after all, as the agitators use the word, means merely men of money, and money is obtainable by any man who has the ability and the industry to get it. The unions themselves have recognized the difference in brains: the I. W. W. and other bolsheviks propose to abolish the difference—and the unions, too—and makes real classes where none now exist. That is, they aim to divide Americans into the classes that exist in continental Europe, the upper and lower classes, and, after having divided artificially and at whim, to put what they call the upper class under the feet of what they call the lower class. All this without any admission of the only class difference which God or nature ever recognized—the class of those who can and the class of those who can't.—New York Times.

LIE TO A MAGISTRATE HELD FALSE SWEARING

Frankfort, Ky.—Construing section 32 of the Code, the Appellate Court held that if a magistrate was convinced that a public offense had been committed he had the authority and it was his duty to summon witnesses before him to administer oaths to them and endeavor to secure facts upon which to swear out a warrant for the arrest of the guilty person. Tom Holton, Leslie county, had been arrested on the charge of false swearing and sentenced to one to eight years for the offense. He was asked a justice of the peace who had administered the oath to him if he had purchased intoxicating liquors from any one in Leslie county during the past twelve months. He answered no. The court says the evidence shows that he knew he was making a false statement.

CHEVROLET WILL BE IN BIG RACE AT CINCINNATI

Great Racer Advises Cincinnati Speedway Managers That His Burned.
Car Will Be Ready.

Much gratification was expressed at the headquarters of the Cincinnati Speedway yesterday when a telegram was received from Louis Chevrolet, the noted driver, advising the officials that he was rapidly recovering from the burns he experienced when his car caught fire in the race at Sheephead Bay last Saturday and he was compelled to drive the burning chariot for a mile or more before he and his mechanic could steer it into a zone where the fire could be extinguished. Chevrolet added that the work of repairing the car was progressing rapidly and that he expected to have it in perfect running order again before the end of the week ready for the big race on Sunday, October 1. Chevrolet was running a neck and neck race with his brother, Gaston, when his car caught fire at the 110-mile lap. He was compelled to stand in guiding the car to its final stop.

Barney Oldfield's car, to be driven by Waldo Stein, has arrived at the track and now is making daily suprises around the oval. It is expected that the veteran driver, who now is a tire manufacturer, and therefore disqualified as a driver, will arrive here within a few days to assist in getting the car in shape to develop its highest speed and endurance. Oldfield has designed several changes in the car since its last race which are expected to add a few miles to its speed per hour, and both he and Stein are content that, in unforeseen accidents occurring, this novel racer will draw down a large percentage of the $30,000 purse.

Word was received from New York late yesterday that a majority of the cars already entered in the race had been shipped from Sheephead Bay to Cincinnati and should arrive here before the end of the week. As soon as the racers reach here they will be taken to the track and groomed for the 300-mile grueling. With one or two exceptions all the cars entered were able to finish in the 150-mile race at Sheephead Bay last Saturday, and it is confidently expected that the matter of tires will be a great factor in deciding the local race, as the cars appear to be mechanically stronger than any aggregation of speed machines ever gathered together on one track.

HITS BOSTON POLICE

Washington, September 27.—Representative John G. Cooper, of Ohio, who was a locomotive engineer before his election to Congress as a Republican, appealed to the workingmen of America against the Bolshevik tendencies exemplified in the Boston police strike. As the holder of a union card, he says:

"I think it is the most disgraceful condition in any community for men who have sworn to enforce the law to quit their jobs as the policemen did in Boston, and leave the city at the mercy of the mob. Such actions will react in a thousand ways against organized labor throughout the country. I cannot help believing that such actions are not encouraged by the better class of workingmen, or by their leaders, but are being assisted by those who would overthrow our form of government in order to establish the Soviet system now in force in Russia. Those of the first measures was to gain control of the police, the agency of maintaining law and order. The guardians of law and order should have no other allegiance except that which they take when they swear to uphold the law and enforce it."

G. A. R. PLEASES SENATE

Washington, September 27.—Adopted by the Grand Army of the Republic at its annual encampment at Columbus, Ohio, of resolutions condemning the League of Nations has created a profound impression upon the Senate, now discussing the entire peace treaty.

The action of the veterans is particularly significant because they have for fifty years been the wards of Congress and have had in the past a nationwide political influence. They have stood for America against any weakening force. Their latest action will, it is expected, have an influence upon their successors in the newly formed American Legion of veterans of the war against Germany.

This is only one of many manifestations of sentiment against the league as it now stands. These have been pouring in upon members of the Senate almost daily, both in resolutions and letters from constituents. As Representative Ricketts, of Ohio, puts it:
"It would be incorrect to state that sentiment throughout the country is that sentiment throughout the country is that the League of Nations is changing.
It already has changed."

With the Democratic descrections of the President's standard, it is anticipated that there will be sufficient votes to put through all Republican committee reservations.

A 30-pound gold coin, made in a brick valued at $7,200, is the largest

SOLDIERS BROUGHT BACK CONFINED IN IRON CAGES

Sufferers From Shell Shock Put With Insane, and Beaten and Kicked Way to Discharge.

Washington, September 27.—Scathing denunciation of those in authority in the Army is voiced by Representative Charles J. Thompson, of Ohio, in urging charges that they have destroyed the national guard, reduced officers to ranks by so-called inefficiency boards, sent youths to prison almost for life for trivial offenses, unnecessarily executed soldiers before mitigating papers reached the Judge Advocate General, permitted the brutal beating of homesick and shell-shocked soldiers, locked up sane white soldiers in wards and metal cages with insane whites and negroes, caused arbitrary delay in discharging enlisted and drafted men, failed to give proper promotions and otherwise comported themselves with "favoritism, inefficiency, brutality and pusillanimity."

"If the crimes committed against the soldiers of the United States, both in America and abroad, by the autocratic military authorities," he says, in a statement issued today, "could be chronicled, a library of considerable dimensions would be required to hold them. Now that men are being discharged the truth is coming out. Some methods should be devised by Congress to rectify, if possible, some of the wrongs inflicted upon soldiers, and empty every prison in the United States except one not a criminal under civil laws. I could be arrested for what I think of the present military cabal, which, in my opinion, could give Satan pointers on how to ruin Hades."

The ire of Thompson has been roused by witnesses introduced by him as the result of his resolution to investigate the Walter Reed and Saint Elizabeth's hospitals here and interrogated during the past week by Representative Roscoe C. McCulloch, of Canton, a member of the House committee investigating the War Department.

"At Savoyon, in Hospital 214," said one witness, "some of the mental cases were really insane, but most of them were just worrying simply about home affairs. Yet there were locked up behind heavy screen-wired windows. If they did not do just what they were told in exactly the way it was told to them, the boys were jumped on and beaten up. There was one man named Mooney. He had gone crazy over religion. He never bothered anyone and just sat on his bed all day, saying his 'Hail Mary' and counting his beads. The side of his face was skinned where a couple of men had jumped on him and beaten him. He is just one I remember."

DISCHARGED FROM CUSTODY

The Augusta Chronicle says: Readers of the Chronicle recall the arrest of James R. Kelly a few weeks ago on a white slavery charge, preferred by the Government authorities, after which he was taken to Huntington, W. Va., where he remained in jail until last Saturday when he was given a hearing and discharged from custody. At the time of his arrest at this place, Jim Bob said it was a case of spite work on the part of his former brother-in-law, George Crawford, of Charleston, W. Va., who accused Kelly of being unduly familiar with Crawford's 14-year-old daughter, and of accompanying the girl from West Virginia to Kentucky and Ohio. Jim Bob did not deny accompanying the girl, but said his sister, Mrs. Crawford, who had left her husband, was with them and that both of the women stopped off here for a stay with relatives.

Jim Bob passed through here westbound, Saturday for Cincinnati, and told relatives here that the Government authorities were now after Crawford.

CHIROPRACTIC TALKS No. 3

The Cause of Disease

Modern science, which is always studying cause and effect, has demonstrated that disease in adults and improper development and sickness in children are the results of faulty nerve action due to spinal defects. The bones of the spine press on the nerves and interfere with the distribution of energy throughout the body. A correction of these defects restores uninterrupted nerve force and invariably results in the return of health.

CHIROPRACTIC (Ki-ro-prak-tic) is the science that has demonstrated this connection between disease and defective spines. For years, and in the face of bitter criticism and strong opposition, Chiropractors have been adjusting the defects in spines to remove the cause of disease. Wonderful results have been obtained, even in cases that were considered incurable. Everywhere there are people who have been greatly helped by

CHIROPRACTIC THE BETTER WAY TO HEALTH

Those who are not in health, who are not strong and well; who are nervous; fagged-out; inefficient; and who feel they need to be recharged with vital energy, will no doubt find relief through spinal adjustments. You owe it to yourself, your family and your friends to investigate Chiropractic.

"The necessity for so many troops," he said, "arises out of the difficult condition in that part of the world.
The Balkan question is unsettled. So are the disposition of Asia Minor and Arabia. The peace conference has not yet taken them up, except to urge that the United States take over the Turkish possessions. England is about to withdraw her troops from Asia Minor.
She has enough to do in Palestine and Mesopotamia, to say nothing of Egypt and Africa generally.

Even so, she is attempting to edge out France in the control of Syria. She hopes in Mesopotamia's oil resources to recoup her financial losses of the war.

"If we do not accept the mandatory, the withdrawal of British troops will result in anti-Christian troops will result in anti-Christian and pro-Moslem massacres. We have become a world power and must keep our finger on the pulse of the entire world. If we do not maintain peace in that particular section, we shall have to take part in the engulfment. On the other hand the expense will be great and we shall have divided interests in both hemispheres."

"I have not entirely made up my mind on the subject, but I think we ought to let this mandatory alone.
Now that the war is over the European nations are already jealous of each other. Any government, no matter which it might be, would have troubles in governing the former possessions of the Turkish Empire. None of the European nations wants the other to take them, but they all want us to do so. At any rate, I am convinced that neither the mandatory nor the lengue as a whole will stop all future wars."

ment just issued by the Bureau of For-ment of Commerce.

Exports during August amounted to $76,000,000 more than in July, being valued at $646,000,000. In August last year the total was $527,000,000. For the eight months ended with August exports were valued at $5,275,000,000, against $4,009,000,000 for the corresponding months in 1918.

August imports amounted to $308, 000,000, a decrease of $35,000,000 as

ENGLAND TIED UP BY RAILROAD STRIKE

All of England is Tightly Tied Up When Enginemen Went on Strike Last Night.

London, September 27.—Great Britain was involved today in the most extensive strike in the country's memory.

Stoppage of the entire railway system at midnight opened the first battle in English history between the government and organized labor.

With more than 500,000 men affected and the country's transportation paralyzed, the government's first precautions today were to prepare against starvation.

The food ministry sprang a surprise when it revealed existence of secret food reserves in London, sufficient for six weeks. Stocks in other parts of the kingdom, it was declared, will enable Britain to subsist for eight weeks. Motor lorries began operating today between seaports and food depots.

Milk distribution offered the worst problem, but an attempt will be made to operate a few trains for this purpose.

The government had established a virtual food dictatorship with almost limitless powers.

CYCLONE STRIKES TUCKAHOE

The Mason County News says: A cyclone of the miniature variety passed over the Tuckahoe neighborhood Sunday afternoon about the same time the rain was falling in torrents in Dover. FARM BUREAU WILL BE GREAT BENEFIT TO OUR FARMERS

Campaign For More Members to Farmers' Organization Begins in Full Force Monday.

Officers of the Mason County Farm Bureau this afternoon made the following statement in regard to the organization for which a membership drive begins Monday:

For the past fifty years the great cry to the farmer has been to increase production. In 1914-1919 that cry reached the proportions of an organized, agonized appeal that amounted almost to a compulsory demand. In every crisis the farmer has risen to the needs of the occasion and done what he was asked to do. But the farmer has never been taught how to market that which he produced. He must be, if he is to prosper, and he must be given a voice in his business.

The greatest value of the Farm Bureau comes in the things that do not apply to one man alone. Any individual farmer can order a car of lime or phosphate and put it on his land. But there are many things that require a concerted effort to accomplish. And then there is the matter of representation.

Too often the farmers have been in the position of the man who failed to be present in a law suit and then afterward wondered why the suit went against him. You cannot blame the people who have gained advantage over the farmers any more than you can blame the jury for deciding the case in favor of the man represented.

Now if the farmers get behind the Farm Bureau in this county and in other counties in the state, as they are doing in other states, they should get what is coming to them, for they will have a system of representation equal to any of the other classes of people, and they will control that system themselves. A Farm Bureau, though, is just what the farmers make it.

A story is told about a little girl who fell out of bed on several nights in succession. She finally concluded that she got to sleep too near where she got in. That is the case of too many farmers—they join the Farm Bureau and then proceed to sleep as far as the association is concerned. It depends on the farmer whether he gets any good out of it or not. If a man buys a new binder and never uses it he has only himself to blame for not getting any benefit from the investment.
